

BRITISH CRIME THRILLER FROM THE PRODUCER OF KIDULthood AND STARRING GABRIEL BYRNE AND RUFUS SEWELL OPENS MARCH 2013

Friday, 4 January 2013, Cipher Films is delighted to announce the nation-wide release of ALL THINGS TO ALL MEN, opening in cinemas across the UK from 8th March 2013.

BAFTA-nominee George Isaac (Kidulthood) makes his directorial debut with this stylish British crime thriller, starring Golden Globe award-winner Gabriel Byrne (In Treatment, The Usual Suspects), Rufus Sewell (The Tourist, A Knight's Tale, Zen) and Toby Stephens (Die Another Day, Jane Eyre). From an original screenplay by Isaac, ALL THINGS TO ALL MEN is produced by Pierre Mascolo and George Isaac through Cipher Films.

When Riley (Toby Stephens), a professional thief, is hired to pull off the ultimate sting, he is unwittingly drawn into a deadly cat and mouse game between Parker (Rufus Sewell), the head of a maverick police unit, and the renowned and feared London crime lord Joseph Corso (Gabriel Byrne). Parker is determined to bring down Corso and do whatever it takes to end his reign, but when the sting backfires and stakes get higher, Riley finds himself at the centre of a battle where the line between the law and crime are blurred beyond recognition.

ALL THING TO ALL MEN stars a strong support cast that includes Elsa Pataky (Fast & Furious 5, Snakes on a Plane), Leo Gregory (Wild Bill, Tristan & Isolde, Stoned), Ralph Brown (Withnail & I, Killing Bono), Pierre Mascolo (Kidulthood, Adulthood), MC Harvey (The Big I Am, Out For A Kill), Terence Maynard (Revolver, Chasing Liberty, Primeval), James Frain (Boiler Room, Count of Monte Cristo, Tron Legacy) David Schofield (Pirates of the Caribbean, Gladiator, Valkyrie) and Julian Sands (The Girl with the Dragon Tattoo, Leaving Las Vegas).

Shot entirely in London, ALL THINGS TO ALL MEN is a Cipher Films production of a George Isaac film, written by George Isaac, produced by Pierre Mascolo and George Isaac, line produced by Andy Chapman and fully financed by Cipher Films. ALL THINGS TO ALL MEN is an independent release through Cipher Films.

For further information please contact Havoc Publicity